藝術之創作，除了創作者渾厚之功底。其過程對其作品精髓之拿捏感受，通常來自於瞬間。配合其涵養，創作出永恆、撼動人心的作品，空間的創作，亦是在掌握瞬間的感動，猶如雕塑般細細推敲。

LIVING IN THE ARTS

瞬間 · 永恆

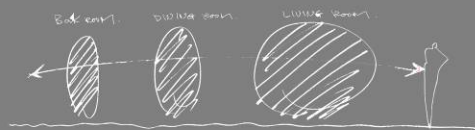

Combination" and sequence" are almost the indispensable aesthetic elements when it comes to the design. In the living room, you can get to see great taste of the host's from all the details. Spacious space, furnished with designer's pieces, all kinds of art work, like the stone sculpture, "Tai Chi" series from Ju ming, the most famous locals craftsman/sculptor, and Luili limited edition pieces from Loretta Hui-shan Yang. And those pieces of art is more than what it values, it's the inspiration, history, honor, and guidance.

Structurally speaking, it's all about penetration.

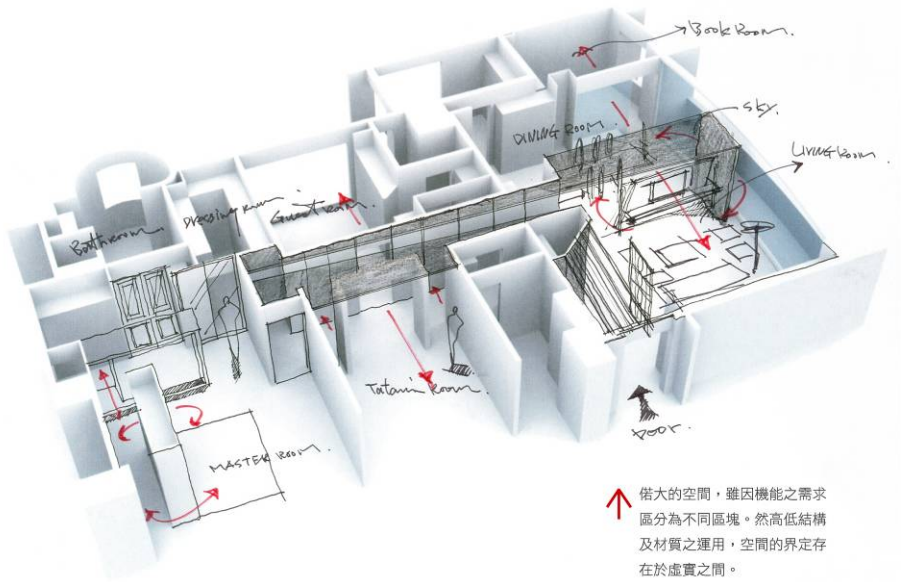

The case was taken when it was half way through. The minimal-designed white cabinet on the left in the entry area, leaves a plenty room for the iron screen, totally eye catching once you come in to this house. Through with some lighting, the screen is not evenly made, it looks easy but actually not.

It takes a lot of work and industrial design background to do so. Facing the entry, it's a display cabinet with metal gray in the background, and it's hidden storage room right behind. It's an excellent design just to avoid an actually room showing in a clean area. And that delivers a clean and cozy message once you get it.

↑ 摺紙的藝術
運用摺紙原理將室內公、私領域進行串連。延伸面的伸張亦將平面的連接，轉化成立體的結構。

↑ 偌大的空間，雖因機能之需求區分為不同區塊。然高低結構及材質之運用，空間的界定存在於虛實之間。

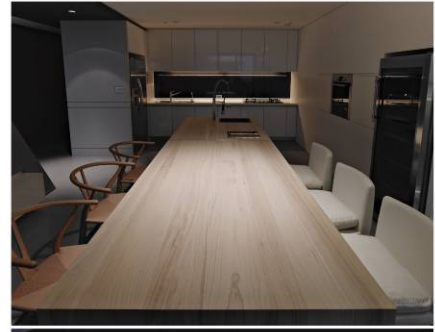

Better design, better life.

You could totally enjoy the get-way moment in here.

It's all about contrast in the living, color-wise. A soft couch with special-made wood frame, the wall in white paint, sandstone floor, the edgy display cabinet, just perfect for the host to show his art collections.

The TV wall with a TV on, full of Contemporary Sculpture concept, is definitely the attention of the living room. With a light material at 15cm and oblique-cutting natural stone, makes it's easy to penetrate. It's TV appliance at both sides of the TV, and especially at a corner of the TV wall, there is a metal gray spot that consistently matches the display cabinet in the entry area.

and leave all the pressure behind.

The dining room is full of elegance and charm. As the host has many friends and he invites him to his place for dinner all the time. Based on this, this kitchen is edgy and functional. With a high-end brand of kitchenware, a customized Chinese Parasol tree table in the middle, a wine cabinet makes the dining room totally a place for the host and his friends to chill, have fun and enjoy the moment.

The host is a big fan of Ju Ming and Loretta Hui-shan Yang. The former is a great craftsman whose work is so amazing, and tries to show that humans should help the ox, pushing with it rather than constantly whipping the animal; in this way, man and beast could truly work together. And the latter is a great artist, who thinks Liuli is more than a material, more than a creative medium; it is a state of being, a form of life.

The host purposely makes a moving display cabinet right in the middle of the dining room and the study for all his collections and also uses the lighting technique just like the gallery. This design is so unique as one side of the cabinet is a whole glass, facing the dining room and while you are eating in the dining room, you get to appreciate all the art collections just like in the gallery.

Sparkling vanities to help start your day.

Heading to the other rooms from the living room, there is a metal gray piece hanging in the hall way which was inspired by the folding paper, while on the right side, it's a whole wall full with pointing techniques, totally eye catching and refreshing.

Right end of the display area is the lounge room. With an open space, mix-and-match with different textures and layer design in here, it's perfect for the family members to chill and relax.
