CSF-05-街道間

位於信義區微風百貨內的饗泰多泰式餐廳，擁有十分狹長的基地，面對此案我們思考如何打破商場內無可避免的封閉感，並同時展現泰國特有的自由熱情。

我們擷取泰國市集元素，讓工作櫃台如市集攤販座落四處，並利用泰國當地竹編工藝，老師傅編織成的頂棚，以一片片高低不一的排列，置於上方來藉此框住空間區塊，半透的編織網串聯用餐區與走道的關係，曖昧兩者之間的界線。頂棚吊燈的暖黃燈光，營造如市集般熱鬧，在戶外輕鬆吃飯的用餐環境。

在這個空間不用拘束，在敞開的餐廳裡，可以選擇頂棚下如發呆亭的卡座區，欣賞插畫家 Eszter Chen 設計，充滿泰式色彩的繽紛壁畫，也可以選擇頂棚外如露天區的搖椅用餐區，伴隨著紅磚組立的矮圍籬，慢慢搖著座椅享受與家人/情人/朋友難得的聚餐時刻，讓泰食體驗不只在味覺上，也同時在視覺與體感上感受泰國街食的樂趣。

CSF-05- Inbetween A Thai Street: Siam More Restaurant

This project is a Thai food restaurant, located in Breeze Center of Xinyi district. With the site is very long and narrow, our goal is to deal with the common problem in shopping mall, and provide a genuine Thai culture experience.

Inspired by the height and narrowness of the site, we envisioned the space as a long market street in Thailand. We place several working counters separately in the restaurant, like vendors sitting in Thai markets. In order to enhance the idea of Thai market, working with Bannavis Andrew Sriyatta from Dictator for Architecture and Design Thailand, we work together to combine the Thai craftsmanship with the space. Hanging bamboo nets which were made by old Thai masters, with light casting through, creating beautiful shadows on ground. The bamboo nets are also used to separate the dining area and aisle area, but also connect the relationship between inside and outside.

The space is embellished with exquisite bamboo baskets, decorative tiles, hand-made and white swing chairs. People can be casual and relaxed in this open space. Whether to dine under the bamboo shed, watching Eszter Chen's masterpiece, or to jump on the cozy swing chair, enjoying the traditional Thai-food. We tried to blend rich Thai elements in the space, to guide people to submerge into an experience like a Thai Market.
