RS-M-79-山坡之家

[建築之前] 中年企業家退休後，在乾涸山谷中購置大片土地，興建住宅安下半生；無有在設計上提出一個精神，曰「君子有道，隱而不藏」，是一句中國諺語，描述著隱居山林但能夠持續貢獻社會的君子典型，是對這項目對生命理想的期許，期望這住宅呈現一種成熟內斂卻生機蓬勃的氣質。

[建築思考] 住宅是建築最基本類型，居住行為卻最複雜而多元。架構上先選擇將一個住宅量體分拆為四，垂直於等高線配置，並與地形進行各種碰觸，以求得最多種不同特性的空間型態，回應居住的複雜性。而分拆量體的同時也拆解了生活模式，讓光、風、雨、樹與自然穿梭其間，填滿一日生活中的轉換間隙，創造有別於都市的生活方式。

[建築實踐] 水平方向，量體由谷外向谷內以公共私密區分進行排列，量體與山坡關係則有嵌入、碰觸與脫離等各種不同方式，滿足內部空間使用方式。垂直高度上，量體的高低錯層配置，創造下方停車空間與上方活動平台。高層間，以斜坡與樓梯兩種不同方式轉折銜接，上層再以一虛體通道曲徑連接各個室內，移動遊走中，描繪原野坡林的身體經驗；而現代幾何形式的建築，則在移動中，視線裡相連拼接，再複寫。

RS-M-79-hillside house

[Preface] A successful entrepreneur bought a piece of land in a dry valley, asked if we could design a house for his retired life. An old Chinese saying came to our mind: "A gentlemen, implicit, not hidden." It describes the type of a sophisticated man, lives remotely, continuous to contribute to the society. It is the ideal that we hope we could capture and translate it with Architecture.

[Concept] A house is the basic type of architecture, but its function is complex. To address the complexity of daily life on this particular site, we split the house into four rectangular boxes that interact with the land in different ways, hoping to create various spaces to meet different functions along the sloping contour, and allow nature to flow in. [Method] The split-boxes inset, touch or flow above the ground, they also slide horizontally and vertically in response to the changing slope to implicate the main and the subordinate, the public and the private, and to create the roofed parking space down below and semi-outdoor space above. Although seemingly independent, these rectangular boxes are inter-connected with ramp, stair and pathway on the inside and outside; walking through it, the arrangement of architecture create a constantly changing and overlapping view of man-made geometry and framed nature. And what thought to be enclosed and protected on the inside of the private space, are found to be open and reveal to the outside nature. It is implicit, not hidden. An experience could only be found on this particular site, for this particular gentleman.
